Dear Mrs. Privoznik:

Reference is made to your inquiry regarding the personal effects of Private First Class James F. Privoznik.

A copy of your letter has been forwarded to the Effects Quartermaster, Army Effects Bureau, Kansas City Quartermaster Depot, 601 Hardesty Avenue, Kansas City 1, Missouri, for reply to you. That office has jurisdiction over the disposal of the personal effects of our deceased military personnel outside the United States. However, considerable time is often necessary to process these personal belongings back to this country due to the lack of shipping space and the great amount of work involved.

I extend to you my sincere sympathy in your loss.

FOR THE QUARTERMASTER GENERAL:

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Privoznik:

Your inquiry directed to Washington, D. C., has been referred to the Army Effects Bureau for reply in connection with the personal effects of your son, Private First Class James F. Privoznik.

I am sorry to report that we have not yet received any of your son's property. There is inclosed an information circular which will give you some idea of the time which may elapse before personal effects arrive here from overseas.

You will note from Paragraph 3 of the circular that this Bureau needs certain information in order to make disposition of property. You may furnish the necessary information at this time, if you wish, so that your son's effects may be forwarded promptly upon receipt here.

For your convenience, there is inclosed a self-addressed envelope which needs no postage.

I wish to express my sincere regret of the circumstances prompting this correspondence.

Yours very truly,

Dear Mrs. Privoznik:

This refers to your recent inquiry regarding the personal effects of your son, Private First Class James F. Privoznik.

I am sorry to report that the Army Effects Bureau has not yet received any of his property. It is reasonable to assume, however, that his belongings ultimately will reach here, as all War Department agencies have instructions to forward the personal effects of military personnel to this Bureau for disposition. Transportation delays generally are encountered in delivery of effects, and considerable time should be allowed for the return of property from overseas.

Promptly upon receipt here of any of your son's belongings, disposal action will be taken.

Yours very truly,

Dear Mrs. Privosnik:

The War Department is most desirous that you be furnished information regarding the burial location of your son, the late Private First Class James F. Privosnik, A.S.N. 36 640 529.

The records of this office disclose that his remains are interred in the U. S. Military Cemetery Hamm, plot L, row 11, grave 265. You may be assured that the identification and interment have been accomplished with fitting dignity and solemnity.

This cemetery is located two and one half miles east of the city of Luxembourg, and is under the constant care and supervision of United States military personnel.

The War Department has now been authorized to comply, at Government expense, with the feasible wishes of the next of kin regarding final interment, here or abroad, of the remains of your loved one. At a later date, this office will, without any action on your part, provide the next of kin with full information and solicit his detailed desires.

Please accept my sincere sympathy in your great loss.

Dear Mrs. Privoznik:

This acknowledges your recent letter regarding the personal effects of your son, Private First Class James F. Privoznik.

I regret that no property of Private Privoznik has been received here to date. A search of the personal effects records of the European Theater Area now at this Bureau, has failed to reveal any information concerning your son's effects.

As it is our desire to be of all possible assistance in this matter, I have sent a tracer today to determine whether any of your son's property was recovered.

Promptly upon receipt of this information, you will be notified.

Dear Mrs. Privoznik:

This refers to Army Effects Bureau letter dated 28 January 1947 advising tracer action was being instituted in an endeavor to locate the personal effects of your son, Private First Class James F. Privoznik.

A reply to our tracer has been received but revealed no information and due to the lapse of time since he was reported a casualty, it is unlikely that any of his personal property was recovered.

I wish to assure you that should any property belonging to your son be unexpectedly received at this Bureau at a later date, prompt disposition will be made.

Dear Mrs. Privoznik:

The people of the United States, through the Congress have authorized the disinterment and final burial of the heroic dead of World War II. The Quartermaster General of the Army has been entrusted with this sacred responsibility to the honored dead. The records of the War Department indicate that you may be the nearest relative of the above-named deceased, who gave his life in the service of his country.

The enclosed pamphlets, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," and "American Cemeteries," explain the disposition, options and services made available to you by your Government. If you are the next of kin according to the line of kinship as set forth in the enclosed pamphlet, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," you are invited to express your wishes as to the disposition of the remains of the deceased by completing Part I of the enclosed form "Request for Disposition of Remains." Should you desire to relinquish your rights to the next in line of kinship, please complete Part II of the enclosed form. If you are not the next of kin, please complete Part III of the enclosed form.

If you should elect Option 2, it is advised that no funeral arrangements or other personal arrangements be made until you are further notified by this office.

Will you please complete the enclosed form, "Request for Disposition of Remains" and mail in the enclosed self-addressed envelope, which requires no postage, within 30 days after its receipt by you? Its prompt return will avoid unnecessary delays.

Sincerely,

THOMAS B. LARKIN

Dear Mrs. Privoznik:

Your letter pertaining to the remains of your son, the late Private First Class James F. Privoznik, has come to my attention.

With regret, I must inform you that at present there is no provision whereby the War Department may furnish photographs of individual graves located overseas.

It is anticipated, however, that within the near future, the War Department may provide a photograph of the United States Military Cemetery Hamm, Luxembourg. In that event, please be assured that you will receive a copy.

Please be assured of my continued sympathy in your great loss.

Sincerely yours,

RICHARD B. COMBS

Headstone: Cross

Hamm (Luxembourg) U. S. Military Cemetery

Mrs. Mary Privoznik
3124 South Ridgeway Avenue
Chicago, Illinois

Dear Mrs. Privoznik:

This is to inform you that the remains of your loved one have been permanently interred, as recorded above, side by side with comrades who also gave their lives for their country. Customary military funeral services were conducted over the grave at the time of burial.

After the Department of the Army has completed all final interments, the cemetery will be transferred, as authorized by the Congress, to the care and supervision of the American Battle Monuments Commission. The Commission also will have the responsibility for permanent construction and beautification of the cemetery, including erection of the permanent headstone. The headstone will be inscribed with the name exactly as recorded above, the rank or rating where appropriate, organization, State, and date of death. Any inquiries relative to the type of headstone or the spelling of the name to be inscribed thereon, should be addressed to the American Battle Monuments Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Your letter should include the full name, rank, serial number, grave location, and name of the cemetery.

While interments are in progress, the cemetery will not be open to visitors. You may rest assured that this final interment was conducted with fitting dignity and solemnity and that the grave-site will be carefully and conscientiously maintained in perpetuity by the United States Government.

Sincerely yours,

THOMAS B. LARKIN
Major General
The Quartermaster General
